New Yorkers For A Day

Vanguard of Hotel Men and Women for the Hotel Men's Convention Here, and New York Amazes Them—World's Greatest Bull-Fighter Leaves for Mexico and New Conquests.

By Roger Batchelder.

The Babe Ruth of the bull-rins, Yuan Belimonte, left the McAlpin yearlerday for Mexico, with his wife and baby daughter. He is the idol of Spain and is known as the world's reatest bull-fighter. Before comings to this country he appeared success-for the content of the country he appeared success-for the content of the country he appeared success-for the Spain and is known as the world's greatest bull-fighter. Before comings to this country he appeared success-for the content of the country has been used by every Provost to the country he appeared success-for the content of the country has the country has the country he appeared success-for the country has the countr fought three or four days each in Madrid, Seville, Valencia, Cordova, San Schastian, Barcelona, Biliaco, Zaragoza and Vittoria, He has a jagged scar over his left eye which bears witness to the severity of one of his encounters.

Belmonte will go to Mexico City,
where he is under contract to appear in the ring on ten successive Sundays. For this he will receive $100.-

"SO THIS IS NEW YORK." The yanguard of the hotel men who will attend the Hotel Men's convention next week have already sized up our village. They were waylaid in the Biltmore by the reporter, and when the polls closed the following answers to the question, "What was your first impression of New York?" were re-corded: "All the girls have their hair bobbed."

Dann Bass, Seattle.

"New York is such a wonderful city that, in his admiration of it, a visitor is likely to get a bit careless," , commented Claude A. Baker of Casper, Wyo., who is at the Martinique. "I hadn't been in New York two hours before I had a lead half-dollar passed on me. I have travelled about 10,023 miles in recent months, and visited nearly all the important cities in the country, but I didn't fall for any phony money, not even a Canadian quarter, until I reached New York. It is a clever reached New York. It is a clever imitation, however, and I'm going to keep it as a souvenir."
